But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another ...

January 2021

Church Family,

I just took down my 2020 calendar. It was a symbolic action. “Good riddance! Au revoir!” I’m looking for a new calendar now. I’m looking for newness as I look forward. There’s something about that word “new.” It means to be introduced or discovered for the first time. While this last year has brought us trouble, inconvenience, and stress, we now turn to a new year full of hope for newness.

The challenge we have is that we need the power of the Holy Spirit to bring about true, deep, lasting newness to our lives. The Bible calls that transformation. But transformation comes after a resolve to change. The Bible calls that repentance. I want to challenge you, as I challenge myself to consider what lessons were learned this last year, and what actions, habits, addictions, attitudes, and priorities we want to leave behind. May we repent of those things which are in disharmony with our Lord and Savior, and may we seek the newness of heart that can only be found in Him (Ezekiel 11:19-20). May your New Year be full of God’s spiritual blessings!

Pastor Nate
